GUIDELINES

Thanks for your interest in the 2017
National Summer Learning Association (NSLA) Art and Essay Contest!

In order for us to give your submission the best possible chance at a prize, please follow these guidelines:

Each entry must show understanding of the theme—Smarter Summers Equal Brighter Futures—and capture why it's important to keep learning and stay active during the summer months

All entries must be your own! Each submission is expected to be an individual effort. Essays will be monitored for plagiarism.

Every applicant can submit only one entry. An entry consists of either a work of art or an essay.

All art should be handmade (no digital art, please). Get help if needed to scan your artwork or take a good photo of it on a mobile device; then upload your art or essay here.
