SUMMER LEARNING SUMMIT
OCTOBER 9-11, 2023 · WASHINGTON, DC
CELEBRATING 30 YEARS OF IMPACT
Join the National Summer Learning Association (NSLA) and senior education and civic leaders from across the country at the Summer Learning Summit, October 9-11, 2023 in Washington, DC.

In response to the negative effects of the pandemic, today’s youth have extraordinary opportunities to learn, bounce back, and propel forward through quality summer learning programs. From school districts to community-based nonprofits, youth serving government agencies, and internship and employment providers, life-changing experiences happen in the summer.

What will we do to make summer learning accessible for all youth in America?

Summer learning leaders and champions will convene to:

- Maximize the historic $30 billion Federal investment in summer learning
- Share and learn best practices and innovations to promote student academics, mental and physical health, college and career readiness.
- Share and discuss research on the impact of summer learning on youth outcomes, including health, academics, and behavior
- Build partnerships with multi-sector leaders to create and leverage effective strategies
- Make an immediate and lasting impact on the lives of young people

More than 1000 senior, cross-sector leaders focused on serving youth, family, and communities will be in attendance, including:

- Executive Directors and Program Directors
- Board Chairs and Board Members
- School, District, and State Education Agency Leaders
- Leaders from Mayor’s Offices, City Councils, Local County, and State Boards of Education
- Parks and Recreation Administrators
- Affordable and Public Housing Leaders
- Librarians and Literacy Experts
- Researchers and Evaluation Experts
- Foundation and Corporate Partners
- College Access, Internship and Youth Employment Leaders
- Anyone who wants to help more youth learn and grow over the summer

NSLA believes summer is a unique time to promote equity and build community. Our mission is to ensure all of America’s students, regardless of background, income, or zip code, can access and benefit from a high-quality summer learning experience every year.

GOING BEYOND THE BOOTH

NSLA recognizes the important roles exhibitors have, and we invite and hope all exhibitors will be fully engaged participants throughout the summit.

We have created a schedule that intentionally encourages exhibitors to jump into other Summit activities outside of Innovation Hall, especially when the hall is closed.

Please review all of our exhibitor options and details, and opportunities to integrate your brand throughout the Summit to create authentic opportunities and connect in meaningful ways.

We value your investment as a potential partner with us and together, we look forward to improving the lives of children through summer learning programs.

WHAT’S INCLUDED

• Your logo and company link on NSLA’s website
• Promotion on the Summit mobile app, via company link or pdf included as a resource
• Your company featured in conference e-blasts sent to NSLA’s national database, reaching over 20,000 partners in the NSLA network
• Opportunity to attend PLC meetings
• Welcome and Networking Reception Monday night will take place inside Innovation Hall & Hallway
• Special Appreciation Reception on Sunday night hosted by NSLA’s CEO and Board Chair, exclusively for Exhibitors
• Attendee list to be shared post Summit
• Summit attendee registration includes: hot breakfasts (3), lunches (2), welcome reception with food, drinks and entertainment
• Invitation to the Smithsonian’s African American Museum of History and Culture and a Dessert Reception at the Anniversary Celebration.

For more details and information about Exhibitor opportunities, please contact Natalia Sol at nsol@summerlearning.org
